CompuGROUP Holding AG becomes CompuGroup Medical AG

Koblenz-based medical software company emphasizes its medical focus with a change of name and a new corporate design

Koblenz - 08 June 2010: CompuGroup Medical AG. This is the new name of what used to be CompuGROUP Holding AG. By means of this change of name the globally successful e-health company from Koblenz is emphasizing its consistent alignment towards intelligent medical software. The focus on Medical Information Technologies and Medical Decision Support Systems (MDSS) is also reflected in the corporate design.

Synchronizing Health Care - relevant medical information anywhere and anytime. This is the mission to which the Koblenz-based company has committed itself. CompuGroup Medical has been developing intelligent software solutions for parties involved in the healthcare system all over the world for over 20 years. The company group is now making allowance for the focus on Medical Information Technologies and Medical Decision Support Systems (MDSS) in its name.

The renaming is also linked to the launch of a new corporate design. In particular the new logo illustrates the self-image of CompuGroup Medical.
